

BELONGING

Written by Karin Diamond | Directed by Peter Doran

“Belonging takes us inside the everyday experiences of people living with dementia. It enlightens, challenges and entertains all at the same time. Prepare for some myth busting!”

– Mark Jones, Dementia Care Advisor,
The Younger Onset Dementia Service, Cardiff and Vale UHB

Inspiring and moving, Belonging is a powerful new play that follows the lives of two families as they discover that love and laughter don't have to stop because of dementia.

This production is based on Re-Live's in-depth interviews with people living with dementia, family members and professional carers. Belonging dispels the myths of dementia and shines a light on how a dementia-friendly Wales can be created just by being yourself, being in the moment...belonging.

A brand new play written by Karin Diamond and directed by Peter Doran (Grav, Oh Hello!, Who's Afraid of Rachel Roberts?), Belonging will tour nation-wide during May and June 2016.
